KIMO BAILEY | (415) 699 - 2386 | kimo.bailey@hotmail.com

WORK AREA: San Francisco

BIO: Kimo Bailey's years of experience make him readily able to take on routine household repairs in a timely manner with professionalism, skill, and efficiency. Kimo graduated in 1982 with an associate's degree in HVAC from Eastern Maine Vocational Institute. Kimo has owned an 1896 Victorian in San Francisco since the '90s. He has completely redone two units and does all his own repairs on the building. Kimo ran a kitchen and bathroom remodeling business in San Francisco for 25 years. He recently built two structures in Maine from stump to stoop, hand-clearing the woods and milling structural lumber on site. Kimo specializes in fine finishes and design-built interiors, including Veneciano plaster, wood paneling, and gold gilding as well as unique hand-built shelving and counters. His many years as an owner/builder have led him to value the built environment, and he is looking forward to helping you with your property.
